The company also will hire 1,000 new employees. Crystal Realty Services is now a division of Crystal Realty Group. It was formerly a unit of Main Street Commercial Realty, a national real estate investment firm. "For decades, Crystal has been the leading name in commercial real estate," said Crystal Realty Services CEO Charles Everts in a news release. "We believe Spokane is a great place to invest, and we hope to make a significant impact in the community," Everts said the merger gives his company access to a global network of investors. "We are excited to be able to expand our reach and deliver more of our real estate expertise and investment expertise to help clients build value in the community," he said. Crystal Realty Services is a commercial real estate advisory firm with more than $3 billion in assets under management. It brings a track record of investment expertise to the region. "We are looking forward to investing in Spokane," Everts said. "We are going to invest in all three of the projects they are giving us, and we are looking forward to seeing some of those move through the Spokane market. We're excited about being a part of Spokane." The $50 million infusion will go toward buying the Bank of America building and adjacent parking lot at 2100 E. Spokane Falls Blvd. and a surface lot at 2601 E. Spokane Falls Blvd. The downtown tower is the company's headquarters and will house 1,000 Crystal Realty Services employees. "We don't know exactly what the portfolio we're going to have when the project opens, but we've agreed to purchase a large portfolio of office spaces in the area.
