Besides the standard keygen and serial number, Muvee also offers users the possibility to .An Iowa man has been charged with child endangerment after he left his children in a car while he went for a drive, according to police. Kurtis Moore, 41, of Burlington, was charged Saturday for leaving his two children, ages 8 and 7, with the window cracked in a car outside their home in Des Moines. IOWA MAN DIED AFTER SHOOTING AT POLICE OFFICER: REPORT "After officers located a vehicle, a short time later they observed the defendant enter the vehicle with two children," the Des Moines Register reported, citing court documents. Witnesses told police that they had seen Moore driving the vehicle with his kids the day before, the paper reported. Police determined that the children's mother, Kelsey Moore, was home when they found out. She reportedly said that she had left them inside the car "with the window cracked due to the heat." Kelsey Moore told police that the children were crying, and she could tell they were hot. She said she had been taking a nap in the back seat, leaving the kids in the front seat. She was later told that her husband had left the children in the car while he went for a drive, the Register reported. When police approached the car, they said they saw an empty baby bottle on the floor. CLICK HERE TO GET THE FOX NEWS APP When officers checked the car, they found the kids inside and tried to wake them but couldn't. They were pronounced dead at the scene. Kurtis Moore was charged with two counts of child endangerment resulting in death and two counts of child endangerment.Iran's Tourists Attract Warnings WASHINGTON (AP) - Iran is struggling to recover from the summertime launch of its first commercial airlines and is facing a parallel campaign to make its economy less attractive to foreign travelers, a situation that could distract Iran's government from responding to the West's bid to choke off Tehran's nuclear program. Iran's airline, Tamkhoda Air, has seen little in the way of growth since flights began in early July, and the airline has struggled to find working aircraft. Even before taking off, Tamkhoda, which has a
