In this game, you are joined by two friends. We are shooting to save your best friend. Explore the jungle, collect the Igras. With the Igras you collected, fight the boss, and save your best friend. Be careful about the camp to run away from the monsters. Don't run over it. You are moving from here. It looks like this. What did you do? You are running into the monster? I am waiting for you. You can't run into that camp. You should run away from it. Did you break the camp? Your friend is coming. Come here. What are you doing? Get down. What are you doing? Come, don't just run to the door. Come here. Look at you. I arrived. Are you okay? What is it? Are you okay? It was the first time that I met. Wait a minute. This is a VR game. We are going to defeat monsters. I'm going to touch a camp. What? You are going to touch the camp, and you are going to run away from it. Did you touch the camp? Yes. It seems like we need to run away from that camp. You broke it? Yes. What are you doing? I am touching this tree. Is it possible to find more camps? I am searching. What was that? You broke the camp? Don't break it. I'm going to touch a tree. You are moving into the camp, aren't you? Yes. Let's go down. Yes. Can we find the camp? Yes. Find the camp. It's not here. There isn't any camp. There is no camp here. Let's see. Why didn't you call me? I am going to collect the Yaleesa Rhykk. Captain of the Champions. The gateway to the Breach. An honest, fair, and strong leader. In an age before her people, she watched their land conquered, her family slaughtered, and her mages desecrated by a faceless nemesis. In the wake of the most tragic of defeats, Yaleessa has rallied her shattered nation, and seeks to reclaim what was once theirs. She has but one focus: End the Nameless. . One of my customers who's like a corporation provides no incentive for me to work overtime. He/she's a crappy controller because no one cares how fast they have to hand in code. If I was there any longer than a certain level, the supervisors would start asking questions about why I'm working weekends and other things like that. - Love reading and writing. My brain is constantly clamoring to absorb new ideas that it can't meet. - Don't need to sleep. I often find myself unconscious with a laptop on my stomach and stimming. - Very forgetful - In "the business," "the boss" can turn a simple one line order into a project that I have to handle. Can take months to resolve. Looking for interesting tech jobs - Calculus without the boring lessons that everyone takes, but for people that wish to be a real mathematician. Good knowledge of algebra and trigonometry. Actuary would also be beneficial. - Help - Seems everyone's flying under the radar and simple guidelines on how to automatically register, create parent accounts, set up our member account, etc. would be very helpful
