Payday 2 is a team-based online action game. The game is set in the city of Saints, known for its monumental bell-towers and cobbled streets. Here you can play as a sniper, a driver, a demolition expert or a full fledge badass. You have different roles to fill in each heist to complete. As the saying goes, "Actions speak louder than words". Unlock new characters, pick-ups, locations and properties for your guys to use as you progress through the game. Players can form and control their own crews of up to 4 players online. To ensure the best play experience for everyone, it is mandatory to have a stable and fast internet connection during the entire game. When you play on laptop or mobile device make sure the system specs are powerful enough to run the game. Ride in style as you drop enemies with your "Devil". You get a payload and a two-minute timer. The first team to collect the money wins. PAYDAY 2 is a brand new open world game set in a massively destructible city. The environments encourage realistic gameplay and are the only ones to come with non-playable pedestrians. Huge missions - From taking down armored trucks to picking up $500,000. What will you do with the money? There are no limits on how you spend it. Guns blazing - Over two dozen weapons. You won't run out of ammo even if you're heavily engaged against multiple opponents. Saints - Find cool stuff like the Big Ben or drive the speedboat around the city. New ways to play - Free roam gameplay at its finest. Enter buildings, lock down and take control over them. Crew + Perks - Unlocks your own team of up to four players. You can assign Perks and customise your team's behaviour. Mod Kits - The modding community is super active on the Steam Workshop. Achievements - The best players will be rewarded with achievements and other cool content. For the latest information on PAYDAY 2, visit: www.deadlysins.com I tried it, and I'm not really playing it for the new characters. Plus I'm not really playing it for the new weapons. I am playing it because it's free. As a veteran of the original PAYDAY I can say this without question that despite the fact the characters look like c9d1549cdd

We're currently working on a game about The Lonesome Fog, it will be a tiny multiplayer online RPG book. If you'd like to help us it would be greatly appreciated! The game will be set in a magical world where creatures are animals, plants and food. As a young cub grows in size, he may be able to travel to other lands through the portals, each one has its own atmosphere. Life is very simple: every life form has to eat. Eat and reproduce, eat and reproduce. As the cub eats, he must find a suitable food source, that requires growing bigger in order to eat. When the cub eats a certain food source, he comes back to his home to spend the night. During the night the cub will grow bigger, during the day he will spend his time eating. When the cub is ready, it can travel the world to see new places. It may stumble into different worlds, some worlds may appear to be very similar to our world, but there are differences. In those worlds, different creatures and creatures' breeds may live. Each world may consist of different elements, each one has different properties, because that represents a different atmosphere. Each world will have different creatures, creatures' breeds, food types, etc. For example: One of the worlds we are currently working on will have two different types of food: fresh and rotten. Every creature that is hungry is attracted towards rotten food, because it has a rotten scent. Creatures are attracted towards fresh food because it has a fresh smell. Food must be eaten. Travels will last until the cub has eaten all the food on the particular world. That's where the game ends. It's all based on what you've heard and seen in the The Lonesome Fog. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask us! Thank you for your patience! Devs: Sander van 't Land - Artist & Creature Designer Maurice Van Land - Illustrator & Lead Programmer More Info: (You can also find a discussion on the reddit community!) Thank you very much for the support! Thanks for your patience! We understand that the game we are currently working on might not be very easy to understand, so here are some extra information about the game: The Lonesome Fog Gameplay: The game man the summer beer explosion resumes with Brut IPA 07.14.2017 Dreaming of going to the beach? Capping off a long weekend where as many as eight Florida breweries ramped up production? Looking for a tasty brew to chug while you guys are gone? Than The Dead Iceman's Brut IPA, now in cans, is definitely a beer you should try. Usually this is an ode to a brilliant professor, public intellectual, or gentleman scientist, but I dedicate this rare find to a man who is both, in one: Norman Borlaug. Borlaug is best known for his work in improving the world's food supply with his campaigns of hybridization and interbreeding several strains of dwarf wheat, and believed he saved more lives on this planet than anyone in history. May he rest in peace. There is a lot of beer to drink out there. We enjoy beer a lot, and I think a lot of people enjoy beer. But when it comes to beer, many people lack information, and don't really know beer or understand what the tastes and flavors are. They don't understand what beer is, or where it's from, or what it's made of. Without getting into too much background on the subject, I think we all want the same thing: to enjoy beer, and I think we all want it to be good. And I think a number of people want someplace, someplace that they can go, someplace that they can sit, and they can take a break and stop and have a cold beer and enjoy it. So anything good is going to be a good thing. Beer is the history of civilization. I think there's a reasonable amount of history that goes into beer. First of all, what is beer? Well, beer is the fermented beverage, you may say, that's made from cereals, and consist of malted grains. Do you know what a malted grain is? 'Cause if you do, I'm going to guess that you've not been back to school. You should go back to school. But I'm sure you know what a malt is. I am too. A malt is a cereal. A malted cereal. I'll show you a malt if I can find one. I've got one here, or I can get one
