Capture one or multiple selected windows and the entire desktop or all the screens, save the results to the hard drive as BMP, JPG, PNG or GIF files, or upload them to Imgur.com. Select your picture's format – select from JPG, BMP, PNG, GIF. Using a single screen or a multi-screen environment, crop a rectangle, an ellipse, a circle or a custom drawing area. Select a custom path to export the selected area to. Set the image's quality, shape, brightness, contrast, rotation, perspective and saturation. Adjust the threshold level to save or discard unnecessary content from the pictures.

Choose the transition duration between snapshots. Enable/disable sound effects. Lock the image to keep it from being changed after saving. Force ScreenSharp to stay on top of all other processes. Provide the program with additional features, if you feel it necessary. ScreenSharp Portable User Reviews: Patrick Vo This program is very useful to get a screenshot of an application as jpg or png. ScreenSharp Portable allows you to take a snapshot of selected windows without the need to use a hotkey. ScreenSharp Portable Portable We were working for a company that handles a lot of work involving graphic design and various software like windows, photoshop, illustrator, etc. We come to a situation where we require to take screen shots of these applications on a regular basis. I came across this software that let's you take screen shots of selected windows but with a single click, easily and also no need to use a hotkey, we simply type a few keys and voila, we have our own snapshots. This software is very good but as per the client's request, this software can not be converted to portable version. We have been using our home PCs for a long time now, but with the increasing number of smartphones, it is important to find an alternative to our current laptop or desktop PC, to take a screen shot when we are in an Internet cafe, school or while we are on the road. ScreenSharp Portable makes it really easy to take a screen shot of selected windows. We came across this software after a whole day of exploring for a similar software that could satisfy our needs of taking screen shots of selected windows without the need to use a hotkey. ScreenSharp Portable with its ability to take screen shots
