It was weird. The characters were spooky, there was a giant evil skeleton showing up in the movie, and a guy in an orange jumpsuit ran around the place on a bike. All in color. It was pretty intense. I became obsessed with that movie for years. Then, I became obsessed with 1984 and A Clockwork Orange. Another visual feast! I had great fun creating something that takes inspiration from each of those movies. It was fun to play with.Q: How does "does not equal" work in MySQL? Is it true that: SELECT * FROM table WHERE id not IN (1,2,3,4) will always select all the rows? A: It's true if id is PRIMARY_KEY. For non-primary keys it might not work if there's a same id in both tables. A proper check would be to create a UNIQUE INDEX. Conservative management of a massively bleeding diverticulitis perforation. Small-bowel perforation from diverticulitis is a relatively common complication. The diagnosis is usually made intraoperatively and the patient is managed conservatively unless massive bleeding is encountered. We present a case of a large perforation from presumed diverticulitis that bled massively and required an urgent Hartmann's procedure. Presently the patient has remained well with evidence of recurrent sepsis and persistent bacterial colonization in the small-bowel resection. We discuss this rare clinical entity and its potential management strategies., while for the $\eta = 1$ case, the behavior 6d1f23a050
