Field of the Invention This invention relates generally to folding and unfolding type cartons and particularly to dispensing cartons of the type having a flat top, which flat top is freely separable from a body of the carton. 2. Description of the Prior Art Cartons adapted to be easily opened by the consumer are well known in the packaging art. For example, certain cartons are provided with tear strips located at corners or side portions of the carton to provide for easy opening of the carton. Cartons of this general type are shown in U.S. Pat. Nos. 3,224,757; 3,254,902; and 3,871,773. In addition to being easily opened, it is desirable for such cartons to be readily refolded. However, the simple construction of these cartons makes it difficult to provide dispensing cartons which can be easily opened and refolded. In U.S. Pat. No. 3,841,8
