The applicant should have the same name, age and password as it appears in the application. New Zealand Police Receipt. The applicant should also have the same contact details as they appear in the application. Most popular in The U. The application can also be used to request queries for oneself and can be used to indicate one's intention for police to investigate a particular query or member as an 'invite' request. The applicant should provide full details of their passport. You will also have to share your email id with NZ Police and confirm your mobile phone number. As of May 1, 2017, New Zealand Police has already implemented the use of an application called NZ POLICE Copyright remains with the copyright owner. Your New Zealand Police application will be emailed to the mobile number you provided. If you already have an application for search and rescue, you will need to pay the £24 charge to start a new application. To keep the current search and rescue application, click Change My Application. If you do not make an application, you will lose your current search and rescue eligibility. You will be able to start a new application if you have not already made an application. If you do not provide any application number and if you do not provide your email address, you will be rejected. You may be asked to pay a charge to start a new application. NZ Police was previously in the GSA group until the decision was made to make it a separate entity. The application for emergency services is a pre-screened application only. We may also do these on request from local councils. You will be able to find out what search and rescue applications are available for you to make an application for on ourSearch and Rescue Service site. You will not be able to apply for a search and rescue application until you have provided the email address and mobile phone number used for online banking. The application is free if you have not previously made an application. You will receive an email confirming that your application has been sent to us. If you do not receive this confirmation email, please contact the New Zealand Police customer care team on The search and rescue service is currently free, but may in the future include a charge for some services. You can find out more information about the service on the web at: Or you can contact the customer care team on 0800 000 000. You will need to make an application to be eligible to make a rescue application and to make a search and rescue application. NZ
