An incredible £14 has been made after a four year old unwittingly scooped a pot of coins from underneath a cupboard in his grandad's living room. Alex Barnett, three, lifted the lid off the top of a chest of drawers, hidden from view, after his family went to visit and was initially baffled as to how the full jug of coins was there. His dad, Doug, rushed home to get his camera but by the time he arrived back the lid was shut and Alex, who is believed to be autistic, was bouncing about holding a goblet
