martha and george are based on two of albee's friends, the married new york socialites willard maas and marie menken. maas was a professor of literature at wagner college and menken was an experimental filmmaker and painter. maas and menken were known for their infamous salons, where drinking would commence at 4 pm on friday and end in the wee hours of night on monday (according to gerard malanga, an andy warhol associate and friend to maas). the primary conflict between george and martha in whos afraid of virginia woolf derived from maass and menkens tempestuous and volatile relationship. during wwii, menken supported the us war effort while maas worked for the office of war information, in which he was charged with tracking down nazi propaganda films. when albee wrote the play in the early 1960s, maas and menken's relationship was in a state of flux. maas was a professor of literature at wagner college and menken was an experimental filmmaker and painter. maas and menken were known for their infamous salons, where drinking would commence at 4 pm on friday and end in the wee hours of night on monday (according to gerard malanga, an andy warhol associate and friend to maas). the primary conflict between george and martha in whos afraid of virginia woolf derived from maass and menkens tempestuous and volatile relationship. during wwii, menken supported the us war effort while maas worked for the office of war information, in which he was charged with tracking down nazi propaganda films. during the play, maas and menken were separated. maas was a professor of literature at wagner college and menken was an experimental filmmaker and painter. menken was known for her infamous salons, where drinking would commence at 4 pm on friday and end in the wee hours of night on monday (according to gerard malanga, an andy warhol associate and friend to maas). the primary conflict between george and martha in whos afraid of virginia woolf derived from maass and menkens tempestuous and volatile relationship. during wwii, menken supported the us war effort while maas worked for the office of war information, in which he was charged with tracking down nazi propaganda films.
