This sthalam was once covered full of trees and lots of plants and it is considered to be a forest type of land. This kind of land was under the rule of Malli, who was a lady, who had two sons, named Villi and Kandan. Kandan was killed by a tiger in the forest. One day, in the dream of Malli, Sriman Naryanan gave his seva and ordered her that the forest should be destroyed and thereby getting Andanars to live. As the same way told by Sriman Naryanan, the forest was destroyed and the Malli nadu became Villiputtoor. Villiputtoor is more famous as this temple is situated on the back door of Pachamalai. It is situated at a distance of 6 KM from Manamadurai. The country bus route and bus stand is followed only by the temple. Most of the tourists are going from Manamadurai to Thirukkovil via the temple. The temple is very close to Gingee, the famous ancient city built by King Tirumala Thevar. The tourists are more preferring to come via this route. Location: This temple is situated in Krishnapattinam district, Tamil Nadu. When going in train, we have to get down in Sri Villiputtoor Railway station, Via Thenkaasi, Krishnapattinam and getting down in the Srivilliputtoor station, we have to go 1 1/2 miles to reach the temple. Bus facility and lodging facility is also available 35 kms from Kovilpatti Book Title: Villiputtoor is a small town located in Pudukkottai district, Tamil Nadu. She is known for her philosophy and practices. During her life time, many literary works, poems and dramas were performed in her house. The most notable of these was Kandaswamy V Chokkanathayyer's book 'Villiputtoor' written by her.

In 9th Century, in Kurodhana yer, Aani Month, Valarpirai Ekadesi, Sunday as the hamsam of Garudan, Aani was born in Swathi natshatram (star). He was also named as Vishnu Sittar, since he had always the bhakti towards the Emperumaan in his mind. He constructed a small flower Nandhavanam park (Nandavanam) and planted all of the flower plants, these flowers are made as Garlands and was dedicated to Villiputtoor Sri Rangamannar. Since, he gave his blessings (Aasi) for the perumal by singing the Pallandu, he was named as Aani. Aani was also known as Periyalwar, who lived in this naluketti (Nandhavanam) and gave his blessings (Aasi) for the Thiru Nila yathan (Poo). Though Mahabharatham in Kannada is published in 1950 by Govt. of Karnataka, Tamil version of Mahabharatham was published in 1986. Since Tamil is the language of Dravidian people, this book is a great favor to Dravidian people in general. Since, Govt. of Tamil Nadu published the Tamil version of Mahabharatham in 1999. According to Sri Gandhi, it is the best book in the world. This book contains 18 parts. Villi Bharatham in Tamil, is known for being the biggest mountain on the earth and is located in Sri Rangam Gopuram city, which is a temple city in Tamil Nadu. Nagapattinam has about 1.2 million people and 100,000 to 200,000 people come to the temple daily. In the village Nagapattinam of Tamilnadu, in the past, all the people used to worship in the temple named as Sri Venkatesa Tirupati. In the Tamil translations of Sri Vyasa, there is a very huge Gopuram and it is called as Sri Rangam Gopuram. The two men in this Gopuram were named as Villiputtoor Alwar who was a devotee of Narayana and Pattarpiraan Periyalwar who was a student of Villiputtoor Alwar.
