If you're thinking of learning how to play pool, then these are the top tips that you should pay attention to when playing in public. No matter how many cues you're using, how many pockets you're playing in or how many coins you're parting your pool with, what counts is the angle at which you hit the ball and the angle at which the cue ball hits the pocket, in that order. Then, if your cues are new, you'll probably want to practice your break shots a bit by hitting the cue ball into the same pocket over and over. This will ensure that you hit the cue ball straight and reliably.
