The website protects you with an affiliate code, which means that if you buy the product you get a credit toward future purchases as long as you use the affiliate link. This is one of the best ways to buy software with no risk. While there are many good reasons to use the Creative Cloud, even those who don't buy into the "Creative Cloud" idea can still get all the same benefits that you've come to expect from Photoshop over the years. In fact, without the UI (User Interface) updates, you'll save even more money by buying outright.
